Sadly I do not believe for 1 second that the changes you are proposing to our rights to deal in options in our IRA's are to make life easier and safer for us or save us money. What I do believe is that you will not be able to force worthless Government Bonds on to us in our IRA if the stocks are involved in option trading and this will defeat the Government's plan to quietly STEAL capital from our account under the allegation of making our IRA safer, while inflation slowly but surely erodes our principal. Ed Garesche, an outraged voter, who sadly realizes those on the dole will outvote us very soon and a watered down version of communism will be guiding your lives, as at the age of I will be fortunate enough to have expired before the full results of this thinking can impact, even government employees.
